PUBLISHER'S STATEMENT

The BCCA Membership Roster is published annually by the Beer Can Collectors of America, Inc., and is the sole property of the BCCA. It is intended for private use by its members. Use of the BCCA Roster for commercial purposes is prohibited and cannot be reproduced in any form without permission. The Roster is copyrighted. Any misuse may result in legal action being filed against offenders.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1993 Roster is one of the most useful publications the BCCA has to offer its members.

The Roster not only lists all members alphabetically, geographically and numerically, it also lists all BCCA chapters, where they are located and who their officers and correspondents are. In addition, it lists the name of the chapter newsletter, the number of chapter members and the number of trade sessions they host.

Towards the end of the Roster can be found a brief history of all CANventions, beginning with our first held at the Holiday Inn South in Sunset Hills, Missouri September 24-26, 1971.

Also in the Roster you will find our Constitution and Bylaws complete with all changes and amendments including the date of amendment.

New this year is the expanded 8-digit coding system indicating each member's preference or collecting specialty. Because of this coding change numerous new categories have been added to further advise fellow members what you collect.

When you are on vacation traveling around the USA or throughout the world, take your Roster with you. When staying overnight in some strange city, look up a member in that city and give him/her a call. You will more than likely get an invitation to come over and view the collection and maybe even share a cold beer. Elaine and I have used the Roster in this manner and have viewed literally hundreds of collections and made many new friends throughout the USA.

As I said at the beginning, the Roster is a most useful tool; use it to expand and enlarge your collection and above all to create new friends and maintain old ones. If nothing more, "Reach out and touch someone" with a phone call.

Have a great year in 1993.

Jack Kellogg #12115
BCCA President

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

It's another new year and another new Roster, with new editors and a new coding format for collectors.

Speaking of the new coding format, many collectors have expressed appreciation for the opportunity to code their individual collection specialties. The system was expanded to provide additional categories and to enable you to tailor the code to your particular can or breweriana preference. If the letter codes didn't specify your specialty, you could spell it out. Donna Guseman is to be commended for spending countless hours deciphering, editing and inputting those new codes.

Also, thanks to Greg Plumb for formatting the member listings so the new codes will fit, and for his computer magic on the three membership sections (alphabetical, geographical and numerical).

The chapter listings, BCCA history, Hall of Fame and CANvention display winners were ably handled by Rusty and Darla Wyar. Steve Beebe and Kenn Flemmons handled the advertising. Lew Cady took the cover photo, Elaine Kellogg supplied the board member geographical list, and Lonnie Smith (The Pressworks in Denver, CO) printed and mailed the Roster with the help of Donna, who supplied the mailing labels. Donna also acted as field liaison, providing membership updates and many of the sections.

Thanks to efforts by Hank Herbst, Lonnie Smith and Roger Kirkpatrick, we have included a listing of all the breweries in the U.S. to date. One of the new and exciting facets of the hobby is the emergence of micro breweries and brewpubs across the country. This is one list that is constantly expanding and many collectors are avidly collecting this breweriana.

There is a lot of valuable (and fun) information in the Roster, and we hope you'll enjoy using it. If you have any comments or ideas, please write.

ABOUT THE COVER

The collection of micro brewery labels on the cover of this year's Roster is just a small sample representing the hundreds of breweries and brews across the country. Micro Brewery Label CANtest: The first person to correctly identify all of the labels shown by brewery and location (city/state) will receive something of very little value. Send your entries to Grace Fisgus #15122, 6495 Happy Canyon Rd. #52, Denver, CO 80237. The correct answers will be listed in an upcoming issue of the News Report. And who knows, some of these labels may one day be on Beer Cans!

BCCA HALL OF FAME

The BCCA Hall of Fame was founded in 1983 as a means of honoring outstanding members of our club who contribute their time and efforts toward the advancement of the hobby either on a local or national level. Members who have unselfishly given their time and talents to the BCCA are nominated.

Nominees are submitted through BCCA local chapters. The top five candidates are featured in the May-June NEWS REPORT along with a ballot. Members may select any two of the five candidates.

To be inducted into the Hall of Fame, a candidate must receive a 50% endorsement by the voting body. For example, if 200 members vote for two candidates, any candidate who receives 100 or more votes out of a total of 400 votes recorded would be inducted into the Hall of Fame. In addition, the top vote-getter receives the "Denver Wright, Jr." award.

ERNIE OEST #108 1972

Ernie began visiting breweries and collecting breweriana before a good many members were born. He is one of the most knowledgeable members of the BCCA on the subject of breweries and breweriana, both pre- and post-Prohibition. Uncle Ernie no longer accumulates cans, but supports the BCCA in every way. His interest now has converted to his first love--brewery labels. He has amassed one of the largest label collections in the world.

DENVER WRIGHT, JR. #1 1973

Denver was BCCA's first President. He and five other collectors founded the BCCA in 1970. He collected only full cans. His collection was kept in sealed cabinets and was known as "The Denver Wright Foundation." He published the "Ye Olde Foundation Herald" depicting friends and other collections. He passed away in 1982. In honor of his memory, annually the Denver Wright, Jr. award is given to collectors receiving the most votes for the Hall of Fame.

CLAY TICHELAR 1974

Clay obtained a large collection of quart cone-top cans. He is no longer a member of the BCCA.

LARRY WRIGHT #2 1975

One of the original six members, he was the coordinator, editor and publisher of the NEWS REPORT in the early years, as well as being the second BCCA President. His unselfish contribution of valuable time during this formative period of the BCCA helped to lay the foundation for the association we have today.

JOHN AHRENS #9 1976

John, active during the early years of the BCCA, served as a BCCA board member and was the Chairman of the 1976 CANvention. He also served as the Cincinnati CANvention Chairman. LEW CADY #98 1977

Our perennial photographer! Lew is a past membership and publicity chairman. He has made numerous contributions including photography for the BCCA's Guide to U.S. Beer Cans and has published two editions of Beer Can Collecting. Lew continues to serve as the club's photographer and his "CANversations with Jim and Lew" column appears in every issue of the NEWS REPORT. He has attended all BCCA CANventions.

WALT HINTZ #85 1978

Walt was one of the oldest BCCA members and had a large collection of cans and breweriana. Up until he passed away in 1987, Walt was an active trader and frequently went to trade sessions in his area. He was a generous trader and rarely ever turned down a trade. He was featured as "Collector of the Issue" in the May 1975 NEWS REPORT.

BILL CHRISTENSEN #33 1978

Bill has been a tireless contributor to the BCCA since its beginning. He is a past BCCA board member and past editor of the Can Close-Up column in the NEWS REPORT. His continued interest in the NEWS REPORT has led him to present a cone-top can from his stock each year to a worthy NEWS REPORT contributor. Bill has attended all BCCA CANventions.

LONNIE SMITH #99 1979

Lonnie was so honored for his work as editor and publisher of the NEWS REPORT for five years. He specialized in collecting one beer item (can or breweriana) from each brewery, pre- and post-Prohibition, and has contributed a great deal to further the hobby of beer can and breweriana collecting. He has attended every BCCA CANvention.

JACK TURNER #65 1980

Jack was the CANvention Planner for ten years. His tireless efforts on behalf of the BCCA made it much easier for those who attended the CANventions. Jack has attended every CANvention and, in 1978 at CANvention VIII in Milwaukee, he received the special President's award.

CHAPTERS: STRUCTURE AND GUIDELINES

Over the past years our organization of beer can collectors has been growing because chapters have been seeking new members from their area. Today, with a membership of over 4000, we have over 100 chapters which have sprung up around the country and abroad.

BCCA chapters are the strength and backbone of the national BCCA. Through chapters, the organization can solicit board members, committee members and future CANvention sites. Chapters help promote the club on a local level and help members to have a greater voice in the national organization. Chapters also serve to provide a local source for collectors to enable them to actively participate in the hobby and to share information on a regular basis. For continuity among chapters, the following guidelines have been established.

OFFICERS: Chapters must have at least two officers as BCCA members in good standing. A minimum of three different officers are required, held by three different chapter members. The treasurer must be at least 18 years old. BCCA policy does not allow listing names in Roster if not a current member.

Officer terms should begin in conjunction with the National's fiscal year beginning October 1, although elections may take place during the summer, as long as actual term of office is effective October 1 and continues until September 30 of the following year.

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS: Each chapter must have a constitution and bylaws which are fashioned after, and not to contradict, the National. A copy should be sent to the BCCA office along with a new chapter application or whenever a change is made.

SIZE AND MEMBERSHIP: The minimum size of chapters is set at ten (10) BCCA members. This requirement will be given consideration for certain areas or types of chapters, and may be waived in certain instances. Chapters may have associate, or non-BCCA members. All members of the chapter need not be BCCA members at the time of the original chapter application. However, these chapter members are encouraged to become BCCA members in good standing at time of chapter renewal application. Chapters may wish to govern trial/associate membership by special chapter bylaws.

HEADQUARTERS: The area covered by the chapter should be defined in terms of miles covered, and a headquarter city designated. (At-Large chapters do not need to name a headquarters or specify area covered.)

AT-LARGE CHAPTERS: These special chapters are comprised of members throughout the country, and are not bound by geographic location. They serve to provide BCCA members a forum for communications and exchanging information on a specialized area of collecting. These chapters should conform to the same requirements set forth for other chapters with the exception of geographical identity.

RECOGNITION: Chapters in good standing will be listed annually in the Roster.

CHAPTER CODES: Each chapter is given a code number at the time it is formed. The numbering system is in numerical order with the highest number being the most recently formed. The chapter codes are listed in the Roster. Members may use the chapter number to indicate chapter affiliation in the Roster listing.

RENEWALS: Annually in the fourth quarter chapters will be asked to update their chapter information to the BCCA vice president. This information will be compiled for the chapter listing in the Roster.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Chapter officers have the responsibility to see that local drinking laws are adhered to with respect to minors at all chapter sessions.

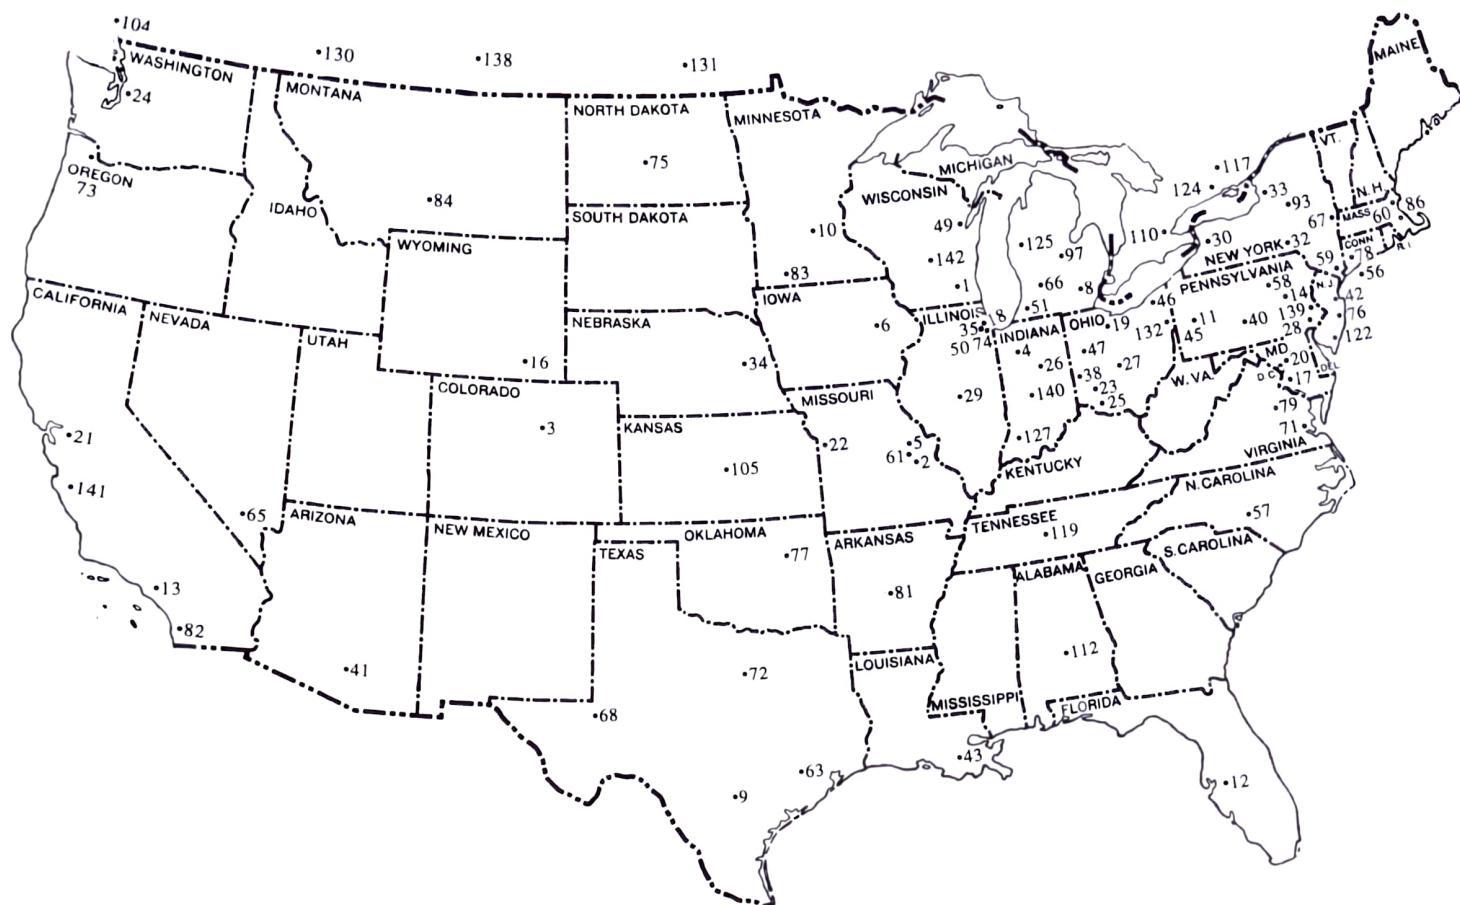

Dues, frequency of trade sessions, etc., will depend on individual chapters. The buying and selling of any beer can or other collectible item of breweriana shall be at the discretion of individual chapters for their own local events.

Chapters are asked to submit a list of all states which fall within their area (except At-Large chapters). A list of the new BCCA members from those areas will be provided to the chapter to aid in soliciting new chapter members.

Chapters are encouraged to submit local newspaper and publicity stories that are published about chapter events and members to the BCCA office for inclusion in the historical records.

The national BCCA is ready at all times to offer help or suggestions when requested. Correspondence should be directed to the BCCA vice president or your area board member.

COLLECTION CODING SYSTEM

In 1992 the available codes were doubled by adding lower case letters to the system and allowing a total of eight spaces to designate collecting preferences and specializations.

Collectors could use the coding system three ways:

1. The first two digits could be used to indicate collection size and the following six, in alphabetical order, to indicate collecting preferences. All upper case letters appear first followed by lower case letters in alphabetical order.
2. All eight digits could be used to indicate collecting preference. In alphabetical order, all uppercase letters are listed first, followed by lower case letters. You will notice the uppercase letters apply to cans; the lowercase to breweriana, with the exception of "z."
3. All eight digits could be used to spell out a specialization or brand preference. Using this method, collectors could specify a specialty that may not have been listed in the alphabetical codes.

12.03 The manner in which a member obtains his/her beer cans shall always be at his/her discretion, except at any meeting or function of the national organization or when using official publications of the national organization as stated in parts 9.03 and 12.01 of the ByLaws. (Amended 14 Aug 82)

13. Chapters

13.01 A club or group desiring to affiliate with the organization as a recognized chapter shall submit a written application to the vice president which shall contain the names and addresses of the officers of the applicant, a definition of the territory or membership the applicant proposes to serve, and a copy of the constitution and bylaws of the applicant, together with any further information the vice president or the board of directors shall request of the applicant. The vice president shall review the application and submit it to the board of directors with a recommendation as to approval or disapproval.

13.02 Chapters must have at least two officers as BCCA members in good standing at the time of chapter renewals. All members of an applicant chapter need not be BCCA members at the time of the original chapter application. However, these chapter members are encouraged to become BCCA members in good standing at time of chapter renewal application. (Amended 12 Dec 87)

13.03 A recognized chapter may indicate that it is such in its publications, however, it shall not in any manner indicate or hold itself out as part of, or agent for, the organization. By applying for and accepting recognition, the chapter shall thereby agree that it and all of its members shall comply with the letter and spirit of the constitution and ByLaws of the organization, and such rules and regulations as the board of directors may from time to time promulgate, and the chapter shall thereby further agree that the board of directors may at any time suspend or revoke recognition of the chapter if the board, in its discretion, shall consider such action to be in the best interests of the organization. Any chapter whose recognition is suspended or revoked shall forthwith cease and refrain from indicating that it is affiliated in any manner with the organization.

13.04 A charge of ten dollars ($10) for renewal fee to all chapters will be added for the upcoming year (1991) with no exceptions or options. (Jul 90) New chapters shall be charged a ten dollar ($10) fee and must submit their payment with their request for chapter status. (Jan 91)

14. Notices

14.01 Unless otherwise provided in the Constitution or ByLaws, any notice required to be given to a member may be given by mail, and if mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his/her address as it appears on the records of the organization, with postage thereon prepaid.

14.02 Whenever there is a handout for a board vote, it should be mailed out one (1) week in advance of the board meeting. (Dec 89)

15. Authority to Bind

15.01 No member or chapter shall contract for or incur any debt or enter into any agreement or otherwise obligate the organization except by express authorization of the board of directors.

16. Rules of Order

16.01 The board of directors shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order Revised. (Amended 4 Apr 92)

17. Amendments

17.01 Any of these bylaws may be amended by majority vote of the directors present at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors, provided the notice calling the meeting advises the directors generally that action will be taken on an amendment of the ByLaws. Such notice should specify the article so to be acted on. (Amended 19 Apr 80)
